CONFIDENTIALITY AND PRIVACY STATEMENT

Australand and its consultants undertake to ensure that the community consultation process for the Duntroon Avenue Project respects the rights of individuals to participate in and express their views about the development of the Duntroon Avenue site.

Australand undertakes to ensure that no personal information about any participant will be included in any research or publications or made known to a third party. Any comments made by a participant in a consultation event will not be attributed to that participant or the association they are representing unless specifically requested by that participant or association.

We will abide by and operate within Australand's Privacy Policy.
